

Unity of purpose will always carry a point even if there are a variety of shades, & I would not rebuke any who are not entirely with you, but I should make them my enemies, when they, if not pro-voked ~~they~~ would become, if not, ^{quite} friends, helpers I want full combination - I do not mean close agreement of sentiment, I mean full combination to obtain the one great end, whether Temperance Men, Non resistants or any other class - Let them privately enjoy their ^{own} views, but ^{let} all leave their ^{public} ^{opinions} to work their own way, giving their sole attention to procure Freedom for the Slave & Equal Privileges for Black White & Coloured Men - I need not say how much we admire your constancy and think of your unceasing labours, these will assuredly be highly prized in after times & be rewarded by him who sees all & can alone judge of the amount of individual sacrifice - May (and I believe they will be) all your toils & reproaches & every bitter thing ~~be~~ crowned with victory over these dreadful evils, these miserable bewilderings of of many wise & enlightened Men & Women amongst you who can feel for injured humanity when not in the colour of Black & Mulatto - In passing over these hapless and deluded minds I pained the enclosed with no idea of its being fit for the Liberty Bell, yet I thought it might do for some one thing you may put forth - but I know not what Demerit it or use it - I shall be equally satisfied I have a note from dear Mrs Clarkson I will tell thee what he says 3 days after I received the note - "Tell that inestimable Woman Mrs Chapman I shall value her splendid book next to the Testament, and that I only regret that age & infirmity prevents me from exerting my feeble voice in the cause of the oppressed African & colored Man" Speaking of Zachary Macaulay he says he is gone to his reward he was my early friend my especial helper - he never worked for the applause of men I believe there is a monument to his memory in Westminster Abbey and I myself wonder as you do his great labours seem so soon forgotten & as your Mother Thomas was his his friend & helper also tho' a much younger
